“ I live in CA now so Just learned of Alice's home going and want to express my condolences and fond memories of her.

I remember playing with Alice and sisters as a neighbor growing up. She was always so funny and very honest. A great role model for me as only a few years younger. Alice and fam are definitely the kind of neighbors you would want to pick for your children to play with.

I will never forget Alice calling everyone in to the bath room to see the size of what she laid in the toilet. She was really taken aback and as I recall for good reason! Of course the sisters were just embarrassed. So funny! I really loved her.

I also remember girl scouts with Alice's mom as the leader. She even had to spank me one time. I loved the campfire beef stew. I never would have gotten the opportunity for this apart from them and love camping to this day because of it I'm sure.

Alice and her family were a very important part of shaping this rascal into something worthwhile. I will always be indebted to them and will never forget them.

Much love to all the remaining sisters. I am very sad for your losses and will keep you in my prayers. Libby Stewart Gay
