“ Becky and Ron Horn are two of my fav memories starting to Compassion City Church...they were the first two people to hug me and let me know how welcome I was....Becky and her husband were always the two people...I could count on to see first when I got there....we shared our love of God....our families and our love of DoxieDogs...we were always taking pics of our pups and she always gave me Tex and Bellas clothes as they out grew them....I will miss her dear sweet smiling face for the rest of my life...I have lost a very sweet sister in Christ but I know she would tell me not to cry to look up...for she is now where we all strive to be....cant wait to see you again Becky.....save me a seat

“ We have been been neighbors with Becky for 2 years but she was a really sweet lady. We will miss her very much. God needed another Angel and he has one. Rest in Peace at the right hand of God. We will meet again. Barry and Barbara Selfon
