“For I was a stranger in a strange land...” Betty Sue took me into her wonderful circle of friends soon after I moved to Albertville. Her get togethers on the deck and in her home were gracious, stimulating, and fun. She introduced me to several excellent authors, and we had lively conversations about the politics and events of the day. During her last years she endured her decline "as well as can be expected," as she always said. Great praise and gratitude to daughter-in-law Renae for tender, loving care and son Vance for his steady support and presence. Betty Sue, you enriched my life. Thank You.
