“ My deepest condolences to the McCullars family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Billy again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"

“ I have known Billy for 25 years we worked together and we were friends as well...Billy was always joking around but he also had a serious and caring side....we had alot of long talks over the years mostly bout family, church and everyday life....Billy loved his family and church.....He was so proud of his boys.....Billy was a family man for sure....I remember when he first started working at Price Rubber he had been here a couple of weeks and he somehow earned the title "Mad Scientist" the guys mad a sign and hung it over his office door he got a kick out of it and so did everyone else He was a character for sure.... So I say this Billy McCullars you are at your final destination where you longed to be and we want to go Your Heavenly Home that we talked bout through the years I will see you there one day....R.I.P. Billy my dear friend...."What a Day that will be when My Jesus I shall see..when I look upon His face..the One who saved Me by His Grace..when He takes Me by the hand..and leads Me through the Promised Land...What a Day Glorious Day that Will Be"... My thoughts and prayers are with you in the days to come Sweet Betty, Jeff, Richard, Mike, Brock, and your family....
