“ Nana meant the world to me, Ben, Lily, and Avery. Even though we live up in Vermont, she was always up for a video chat with the girls or to send a reassuring message when things got tough. We’re so thankful we got to spend a week with her this past June so that the girls could create memories of her while she was well.

I will always cherish her kindness, her incredible biscuits, and her sweet southern drawl.

Sending so much love to Troy, Emily, Melissa, Karry, Gary, and the rest of the family.
