“ Brandon was the best husband, father and friend to so many. He never met a stranger and could talk and talk for hours. He had more stories to tell than anyone I've ever met. We had so many good years together and I'm so thankful and blessed that God choose him to be the father to our three amazing children. He loved his kids and anyone he met or talked to he had to tell them all about his awesome kids. He could make you laugh with all his funny stories. I witnessed that man lead so many to God when he was an Evangelist going to a different church every single Sunday spreading the Gospel, on the radio preaching or preaching in the middle of walmart to a total stranger asking them if they had Jesus in their hearts. He made such an impression on every single person he met. We love you so much Brandon and we will never forget you. Your memory will be kept alive forever. Fly high our sweet angel. We will meet again and spend eternity together in our Heavenly home. Watch over us and protect our kids. Until we meet again. You were my best friend the day we met and had been for 21 years. I'll miss you so much but I know you are up in Heaven looking down and taking care of all of us. I love you forever Brandon Jones❤️
