“ Your Mom, Joyce, was the sweetest, kindest, most precious person to enter my life. We met in 7th grade at Albertville Jr. high school. I was a new transfer from Boaz to Albertville. I was very unhappy as my parents had divorced and this destroyed my life, rough in 1960, hardly anyone got a divorce back then. I don't remember the exact day but all the sudden I was drawn to this quite soft spoken little girl with long brown hair. I missed my Church, my friends, my choir, girl scouts, GA's, piano lessons, band. I was a wreck. She never knew what she did for me. Now, I know that God sent her to become my good and loyal friend, forever. She meant so much to me, but her being a Christian, meant more than anything. God sent her to keep me from falling into the wrong crowd of people, he knew how my heart was broken and she with her soft and gentle nature slowly helped me through many of my trials. I grieve with you all today and also praise God for placing her in my life. I am so happy to know that she is in Heaven with our Lord Jesus and many of her family members. Rest well, Joyce, my precious friend. I love you so much. Your forever friend, Lita Baird (aka Estilita Gore)
