“ Growing up, I remember the whole Joel Buckelew family as hard working, honest pillow blocks of our Horton community. One of a few owners of a John Deere hay bailer, they would come to our field, pull it from stack to stack and bail hay for us. Like his younger brother Volis, our brother in law, Caldwell served the military during WWII. While at the University of Alabama, living in married student housing, he and Ivo served supper to Bob and me. Many times we would pack into his jeep for a ride home. We all take much pleasure in our close association with Caldwell and his family and will forever treasure our memories. Glen Moultrie
