“ I met Cathy when we both were Ambassadors for the Albertville C of C. She was such a sweet and kind lady. A beautiful woman with a good heart. I was so shocked to hear of her death. God bless her family and loved ones.

“ Dear Hilda, Lucas and Family,
My heart is broken that I cannot be there with you. Cathy was just like a sister to me. We shared so many good times together, gossiping into the wee hours of the morning and comparing where our lives had taken us. Georgia was the begining then Bangkok, and back to Georgia again. North Carolina was where we lost touch for a while but I always knew that she was only a phone call away and I guess I took that for granted. What a harsh lesson for me to Learn. I want you to know that you are all in my prayers and I know that you'll find comfort in knowing that she was the sweetest and kindest and classiest woman I knew and she'll be greatly missed every day for the rest of my life. God bless you all
Love Becca

“ I knew Cathy because our sons met up playing tennis tournaments when they were both in high school (and still play together). Even though our boys were often competing against each other, I remember that it struck me how sweet and friendly Cathy was. I specifically remember a particular tournament in Birmingham in which she and I were both driving our boys home afterward on I-65 in different cars unbeknownst that we were in close proximity. Suddenly all traffic stopped and we ended up being stranded all night because of an 18-wheeler wreck that caught fire and blocked all lanes. Drivers were out of their cars and everyone started visiting, etc. and we saw that Lucas and Cathy were a few cars away, and it was a super relief to see their friendly faces and to have them to "spend the night on the interstate" with. I said all that to say that Cathy is and was just a doll...someone whom I saw infrequently in the subsequent years but whom I will always remember because of her profound and REAL goodness and beautiful spirit. She made you feel like you had always known her. May God bless and comfort you, dear Lucas, along with her family and all those who loved her.
