“ Danny was one of our very favorite people. The love for his wife Robin poured out, and was visible to everyone around them. He had the most positive outlook on life, even when things were dim. He touched so many lives, he will be missed by all that had the pleasure of knowing him.

“ If there was ever a person on this earth that could take a joke, it was Danny Smith. I considered Danny a dear friend and loved him as a person. I will miss the phone calls talking baseball with him and God knows how he loved Baseball. I met Danny when I coached his son Derek in youth baseball and we remained friends until he left this earth. Most of us can only dream of being as kind and gentle as him. May you rest in peace Danny, love ya buddy.
