“ We are so sorry to hear of Don's passing. He was a very dear friend. We both worked with Don for thirty years. We fished together for most of those years also. He was a very good friend who will be sorely missed. Our condolences to his wife Linda and children . These condalances are coming from Ken (deerman) Bolton and Ray Gresham.

*Don was such a warm personality. He will be missed dearly. I remember how proud he was of his little red headed girl, Christy, when she was a small child. I remember him telling me years later how happy he was to be able to spend time with Christy's son, his grandson when he was born. He certainly loved and cherished his family. My heart goes out to Linda, Christy, and family.
Love you all,
