

Mrs. Dianna Nicole Bartlett Quevedo

August 18, 1982 - November 7, 2023

In Loving Memory of Dianna Nicole Bartlett Quevedo

Dianna Nicole Bartlett Quevedo, age 41, of Collinsville, Alabama, passed away peacefully in her home on Tuesday, November 7, 2023, after a courageous battle with Metastatic Breast Cancer.

Nicole was a loving and devoted mother to her seven precious children: Johnathan Henderson, Luke Henderson, Abigail Henderson, Allie Henderson, Hortencia Quevedo, Lucy Quevedo, and Evie Quevedo. Her love for her children was boundless, and she cherished every moment she spent with them. She was not only a wonderful mother but also a loving "dog mom," showing her compassion for all animals. Nicole had a deep passion for maintaining a healthy lifestyle and took great care of herself both physically and mentally. Despite the immense challenges posed by her illness, she continued to lead an active and health-conscious life.

A remarkable achiever, Nicole pursued her educational dreams during her battle with cancer, earning a Master's degree in Dietetics. Nicole fulfilled her lifelong dream by working as a Dietician at Gadsden Regional Medical Center, a job that allowed her to help others through their own health journeys. Her dedication to her patients was exceptional, and she continued to make a difference in the lives of those she cared for, even while battling her illness.

Born at Boaz Hospital and raised in Arab, Nicole was the beloved daughter of Teresa Ann Putman and the late Joseph Lee Bartlett. She is survived by her mother, Teresa Ann Putman (Jim Putman); sister, Racheal Leigh Helton (Russ Jones); nephews, Drake Helton and Cason Jones; brother, Jeremy Heath Atchley (Amy Atchley); grandmother, Doris Jane Freeman; cousin, Conne McCowan. In addition to her father, she is preceded in death by her, grandmother, Francis Lucille Bartlett; grandfathers, Olan Eugene Bartlett and James Hall; great aunt, Marlene Denney; host of uncle aunts and cousins.

Nicole's warm and caring nature made her a cherished friend and family member to all who crossed her path. She was known for her culinary talents and shared her love of food by creating cookbooks for her community. She also imparted her knowledge through cooking classes at the Collinsville Library and had her culinary wisdom published in a Georgia women's magazine.

Funeral service will be held at 2:00 pm, Saturday, November 11, 2023 at Adams Brown Service Funeral Home. The family will receive friends prior to the service from 12:00 pm – 2:00 pm at the Funeral Home.

Pallbearers assisting Nicole to her final resting place at Free Home Baptist Church Cemetery in Grant, Alabama will include; Johnathan Henderson, Luke Henderson, Jeremy Atchley, Scott Henderson, Corey McClain, and Joe Tarvin.

“Nicole was one of the brightest lights that God put on this earth. I am praying for her family because I know that they need all the comfort and prayers that we can offer. Such a beautiful daughter, mother, wife, and friend that she was to us all. I know she's in Heaven where there's no more pain and suffering and we'll be reunited with her one day. I am honored to have had the privilege to know her.”
