“ Although, I was only a Son in Law to her, she made me feel as if I had always been her son from the very beginning. She was a loving lady that always put her family first. I'll miss walking into her home and asking "Mom, what ya' got cooked?" That always put a smile on her face as well as mine. I'll miss her telling me about all the things she had seen and done over her 96 years on this earth. Most of all I'll miss having a Godly woman in my life, that prayed for her family daily.
