“ I remember one day, we were all sitting around her bedroom and Momma looked up and said that "Yep! Ramona Gail you were mischievous. " She dozed back off. Later, she woke up so I asked "Well, Momma, what was Melissa?" She said, and I quote, "Gooooood!" I busted out laughing coz I figured that. Good stories. I miss you Momma!

This morning I had Faye on my mind and realized that it had been too long since I had read a Facebook update. I searched for her and found her page was gone. I knew something must have happened, so I googled for an obituary. I live in Kentucky and met Faye at Kentucky Music Week several years ago and loved keeping up with her on Facebook. What a fine Christian and inspiring person she was! I am sorry I didn't know sooner about her death and hope that a family member sees what I have written. You have my sympathy.

“ I have so many memories growing up with Faye like a second mother. One memory that stands out was when she organised the Walk-a-thon for St. Jude's hospital to raise money for the Leukemia research. She was always thinking of others. So patient and so kind and a great cook. And I will never forget her faith in God! Love her and will miss her!

Mother always loved you just like a child of her own. She was always placing others before her own self. I was showing her your pictures that you had placed on FB of your daughter and she said she looked just like you! Her inspiration and love for others will be greatly missed.

Lynn and Bill, thank you so much for your sympathy! She loved her dulcimer and she loved to play it! Her faith was so strong and especially to see her go through what she had to go through battling her cancer. But she stood strong and that was only because of faith. She was such an inspiration to everyone! She will be missed...
