

Mrs. Frances Aldreidge Moultrie

August 1, 1930 - May 27, 2017

Frances Grace Aldridge Moultrie, 86, of Salisbury, died May 27, 2017. She was born in Albertville, Alabama and was the daughter of Clifford O. Aldridge and Grace Singleton Aldridge. She is survived by her husband, Dr. Fred Moultrie and three daughters and their husbands, Marilyn (William) Phillips of Melfa, VA, Elizabeth (Thomas) Becker of Salisbury and Janet (Richard) Gauger of West Chester, PA. In addition to her husband and daughters, she is survived by grandsons, Christopher (Elizabeth) Phillips of Durham, NH and Adam (Jessica) Becker of New Haven, VT and by granddaughter, Meredith (Stephen) Grant of Salisbury and two great-grandsons, Benjamin and Wesley Phillips of Durham, NH.

Frances's love was first for her family and secondly for travel. She spent several happy years as a student's wife at Auburn University and Kansas State University, and as a professor's wife at Auburn. She had many opportunities to travel in the United States, and visited five continents over the years with her husband through his academic and poultry industry endeavors, meeting dignitaries and industry leaders. She loved to tour and shop.

She was an avid bridge player, honored member of the Junior Auxiliary Board (Peninsula Regional Medical Center), and enjoyed flower arranging. She was a member of Asbury United Methodist Church for over 40 years.

A graveside service will be held at Memory Hill Cemetery on Thursday, June 8, 2017 at 11:00 am.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Asbury United Methodist Church in her name or an organization of your choice.

Services entrusted to the care of Adams Brown Service Funeral Home.
