“ Gatha Kilpatrick was a friend and part of my extended family. Her son, Brad Kilpatrick, married my daughter, Telia Moore Kilpatrick. Gatha was a good person and a devout Christian. She loved her family dearly.

Kenneth and I dearly loved her and Harold. She was a great cook and always invited me and Kenneth, my deceased husband, to a meal whether it was a Holiday or not. We were always welcome at their house even if we did not take advantage of it as often as we should have.

I am so thankful she taught my son-in-law Brad how to cook because he is a wonderful cook. Also he takes very good care of my daughter and I love him for that.

Brentson & Brandon, I love both of you also and you have my heartfelt sympathy for your loss. Gatha will be missed.
