“ I shot skeet with Henry back in the 60's, 70's and 80's when he was selected as an All American First Team member. An honor richly deserved.

Much later in the early 2000's we shot as Veterans in our 70's. Henry still had that competitive edge.

As Debbie noted, he was always a gentleman with a great attitude, always fair, a good sense of humor and a pleasure to shoot with. Henry was one of those people that leave the world a better place for his having been here.

“ Henry was one of the few gentlemen in skeet shooting. I always felt honored when I got to shoot with him. Great shooter. Family and friends are in my prayers.
