“ Idabelle,

Out of the blue, I woke up this morning thinking about Jack, and after a quick internet search, sadly discovered his passing on the internet. I have such fond memories growing up of you and Jack, having made such a valuable contribution to my life. Jack was such a gifted & effective teacher of God's word, and was always a joy (and tons of fun) to have around. He really knew how to put subjects into a "layperson's language" that was easy to relate to and understand.

It hurt me when Parkinson's began to take it's toll on Jack, but he still maintained his encouraging and humorous spirit. The last time I saw him was at Mom's funeral in 2010. It was great to see both of you then, but it was a reminder of his increasing struggle.

I know his passing leaves a painful void, but I know God and his angels are likely laughing at his funny jokes & quips. Aside from the passing of Jack, I sure hope you, Mary Jane & LeAnn are all doing well.

Warmest regards,

“ Nothing could turn a bad day into a good one like running into Jack around town. No problem seemed quite so big after a smile and a hello from him. He had a unique gift, and he is both irreplaceable and unforgettable. Jack Wells will be sorely missed.
