

Jeanette Chastain

April 10, 1939 - February 3, 2024

Jeanette Chastain, age 84, of Albertville, Alabama, passed away on February 3, 2024. Jeanette was born in Sylacauga, Alabama on April 10, 1939, to the late Dewey and Arlis Saxon. She graduated from Anniston High School in 1957 and went on to Howard College now known as Samford University, graduating in 1960. Jeanette left a legacy of love, faith, and service that will be cherished by all who knew her.

An active member of the First Baptist Church of Albertville, Jeanette dedicated over 54 years to the church. She especially enjoyed singing in the Church choir, serving as a Sunday School teacher and participating in numerous committees. Her unwavering commitment extended beyond the walls of her church as she worked for many years with the mission program serving teenage girls at FBC's Cahill Mission Church.

In addition to her church involvement, Jeanette helped found and organize the Christian Women's Club of Marshall County in the early 1970's. Her dedication to fostering fellowship and faith extended to this community organization, leaving a lasting impact on the lives of the women she served. Jeanette's infectious smile and warm greetings made her a beloved figure in her family and church community. She was known as the heart of many, always ready to share the love of Jesus with everyone she encountered. Her family fondly remembers her saying, "Her smile was Jesus shining through." Survived by her devoted husband of 63 years, John Chastain, Jeanette leaves behind a legacy of love and faith. She is also survived by her daughters, Susan Gravlee (Gaines) and Sandy Jolly (Phil), grandchildren Valerie Grauel (Ryan), Kristen Gattis (Jake), Jonathan Gravlee (Ruthie) and Sabina Jolly, as well as great-grandchildren Gaines, Hollis, and Mason Grauel, Cameron and Wesley Gattis, and Savannah and Abigail Gravlee. She is also survived by her sister, Carolyn Shull.

In addition to her parents, Jeanette was preceded in death by her brother-in-law Ken Shull and sister-in-law Judy Chastain.

A memorial service to celebrate Jeanette's life will be held at 3:00 pm on Sunday, February 11, 2024, at First Baptist Church of Albertville. The family will receive friends two hours prior to the service, beginning at 1:00 pm.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations to be sent to the First Baptist Church of Albertville (<https://onrealm.org/albertvillefbc/-/form/give/now>) Building Fund or Mission Fund, 309 East Main Street, Albertville, Alabama 35950 or Real Life Pregnancy Center (https://www.paypal.com/donate/?cmd=_s-xclick&hosted_button_id=PGTCFY8ZWDTJY&source=url&ssrt=1707331519951) 104 West Alabama Ave. Suite F, Albertville, Alabama 35950.

Adams Brown Service Funeral Home is honored to assist the family during this difficult time, as they remember and celebrate the life of a remarkable woman whose impact will be felt for generations to come.

“ I am so sorry about the passing of Ms. Jeanette. She was a very special lady who radiated the love of Jesus with everyone she met. She, John and the girls have been special to the Charles Roden family since you moved to Albertville and began attending FIRST BAPTIST and sitting on the pew in front of us. May God give you Peace. Comfort, and Love during this time.
