“ I remember Seniors getting to pick out Rookies. I had my eye on the cutest Freshman ever. That beautiful smile, so nice, his hair with that birthmark! I just knew I wanted him to be my rookie. It got to my turn and I picked him. He memorized, You lost that loving feeling and sang it. He carried my horn. Carried our lunch plates. He was the best rookie! I thought he must hate me! That shy little Freshman who turned into a sophomore that night I graduated brought me a card with money. I said Jody, you really liked me I was awful. He turned red and said no I loved you. I loved you too Jody! You was part of some of my best years. I'm so proud of all you accomplished, although it was ALABAMA. Haha, We always get laughs outta AL and Auburn. I love you and I'm going to miss you so much and picking on you. I always say YOU REMEMBER SOMEONE BY THEIR SMILE AND THEIR LAUGH, they are your Angel for a life time! I've not lost you just gained another Angel. I know your loving your dad and God knows best for all. I know we will see you again soon my friend. Love you, Kristin Ramey Ellison, Your band family not Master, my little Rookie
