“ When all the Kuykendall grandchildren would be over at Grandparent's farm visiting, we would want to have a taste of Granddaddy's sugar cane. Johnny was the only kid allowed to cut it for us--he was old enough to carry a pocket knife. He kinda liked all of us standing around him waiting our turn to get a piece of the sugar cane, which Granddaddy had taught him to peel. I have always appreciated Johnny's quiet ways and soft voice.
