“ I have been friends with Martha for 65 years. We was pregnant together her with Connie and me with my son Danny. We had some great times in our younger day. I will always hold those memories in my heart. I lost touch with Martha but through a few friends found her again a few years back and was lucky to celebrate her 85 birthday party with her. I love you Martha...you will always hold a special place in my heart. Rip sweet Martha
