“ I am so sorry to hear of this...I just had him last semester for history and I enjoyed the class with him so much I chose to continue with him as my teacher for spring classes that start tomorrow. I looked at my schedule and noticed that my professor had been reassigned to someone I was not familiar with. He knew I enjoyed his class and that I was taking the second part, so naturally I was wondering why they switched me and I was pretty irritated with the school...and for some reason this thought popped in my head and I googled...and I am very upset by his passing. I really enjoyed his class and he was always so helpful..I never even judged him for being an Avalanche fan (just a little inside humor from a Penguins fan). He will be missed.

“ I had Michael as a student at Snead and then worked with him on the first classes he taught with us. He has been a friend ever since he was in my class and I am so very sorry to hear of this. He was doing such a wonderful job with us and he and I argued and played back and forth on Facebook. I considered him more than a Facebook buddy but a true friend and fellow history teacher. His love for history was evident to his students and he had several that wanted to continue classes with him. That is a true testament of being a good teacher. I will miss his sarcasm, his laugh, and.....him. Much love to his family.

“ My deepest condolences to the family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Michael again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"
