“ I will always remember Mike and Vinny having to wear dresses after a match they had lost. Mike in the wig with the wrestling headgear is unforgettable. I loved being able to catch a meal on the rare occasion we did with him and his family. I take comfort in knowing he served our Lord and today is in perfect health cheering us all on!

“ I will never forget you my friend. Your legacy as a Godly man, always sharing your faith and you and Kim always being there for anyone needing help. I am blessed to have known you. You were always and will always be like a brother to me. Till I see you again on that reunion day...love and blessings to your Mom and Dad, Kim and your children.
