I just saw this! Nina came to Opp Alabama and taught physical education. I was one of her students. She lived across the street from us(my parents and me)we became close friends with Nina....like family. We all loved her very much and missed her when she left Opp. Nina made some great friends in Opp. My parents kept up with her for years then as they got older they didn't have much contact but always knew where each other lived:)she was a bright spot in our lives for sure! I can only imagine the reunion they had in Heaven.
