“ All of the Yarbrough Family sends our love, our thoughts and memories of Aunt Phil to my dearest cousins David and his wife Rhonda and family and Denita and her husband Edwin and family. Aunt Phil was always special and made everyone else feel special as well. As a boy growing up with David & Denita and spending summer time with y'all in Boaz your Momma always made for me those wonderfull little breakfast buscuits and to this day her mustard based potato salad is still the best this ole boy has ever eaten. I shall miss her smiles, her laughter, and her love. Rest In Peace until the day of our Lord's return in all of his glory.

“ As a boy visiting in the summers my cousins David & Denita, Aunt Phyllis would cook for me special little biscuits for breakfast that were simply delicious. She also made the very best mustard basedpotable salad this Ole boy still has ever eaten. She always made me feel special to her and the family. I shall miss her greatly. RIP dear Aunt Phil until the day of our Lord's return in his glory.
