“ I remember in 1963, Windell and I were very stressed with two children, unhappy situation and we drove to Albertville to see Aunt Polly. She was so gracious , invited us to spend the night. She had the most delicious dinner even though she had worked all day, then we bedded down for a comfortable warm bed.
It was her style to think of others.
We will miss you. God has another jewel in heaven.
Blessings on the family as they adjust to Gods will in their life.
Windell and Judy Shirley
