“ I am very sorry for your loss. It can be hard for friends and family to find the right words to say. Thankfully we can echo the comforting words that we read in the Bible. At Revelation 21:4 it tells us that the God of all comfort will soon do away with all suffering, sickness, tears, and death. Daniel 12:2 tells us that God will even undo the effects of death at that time. Until then, may your loving memories of Ralph bring you comfort during this difficult time. Your family has my sincerest condolences.

“ To the family and friends of Ralph Anthony Brewster

My heartfelt condolences for your loss. He will be remembered fondly, and often with a smile, for he had that contagious air of levity and good humor about him always. He was a likeable man with a personality larger than life itself. He was a shipmate of mine from the U.S.S. Blakely (FF 1072). I was lucky to have served with "Tony" as a fellow sonarman. He could always be counted on for a smile, a chuckle, or a hearty belly laugh. He was blessed with many friends - a stranger was a friend he hadn't met yet.

We are all the luckier to have known what a great person he was, though our friendship was a short-lived one, and so many years ago now. I can still recall his laugh, and his spontaneity for seizing the moment. He was well liked, gregarious, and kind-hearted. I can say this for all his shipmates aboard the U.S.S. Blakely, he will be missed.

*Rest In Peace Old Friend.
"Fair Winds and Following Seas" Tony.*
