“ Debbie, we will always remember the times we spent with Ruth and Junior, watching you and Gary grow up with our boys, the times we shared in our respective homes, at the lake and church. Moving away from Albertville was one of the hardest things we ever faced leaving such dear friends. The distance may have kept us from our regular meetings, but never let our memories fade. An unavoidable conflict will prevents us from being with you at this time, but you will be in our prayers. May God bless you and your family and give you peace and healing. Bill and Ellie Hagler,

“ Ruth was a second mom! Growing up our families were frequently together, many great times, fishing, swimming, and skiing. My love and prayers to all the family!
