“ I will miss my friend so very much. Never has there been a sweeter more caring person than Sarah. She loved people and people loved her. I know she is happy where she is tonight and we will see her again someday soon. The memories I have of her I will cherish always. God blessed me with 10 years of having the best neighbor anyone could wish for. Each time I look out my window I will see her in my minds eye working in her yard or sitting on the porch. I love you Sarah and I miss you. You are one special person. You are not gone-just your address has changed.....”
