“ No matter what was going on in my life no matter how left out i was and cast out by my own family you always made me feel important!! You always had a smile and nothing but kind words to bring me up in some of my darkest of days!! You were the light in my darkness more than you will ever know!! The mother i wish i had always had!! You will forever be loved and miss "Momma Sharon"!!!

“ I haven't seen my Aunt Sharon in a number of years, but the memories I have of being with her from my childhood are so special to me! I was heartbroken last year when we learned that she was struggling with cancer. May our Lord cover all of my family members with a peace during this time. We love you!

“ I haven't seen my sweet Aunt Sharon in a number of years, but the fond memories I have of her from my childhood days are so special to me! It broke my heart to learn that she was struggling with cancer last year. May our Lord bless all my family members in Alabama with an overwhelming peace during this time. We will forever love you Aunt Sharon.
