“ I worked with Stephen at Huntsville Hospital during the late 1990's. It was a pleasure to get to know him and call him my friend. He was incredibly talented and a wonderful person to be around. I extend my sympathies and offer my prayers to his family, whom he loved so very much. A sweet life cut way too short. Rest in peace my friend and work your creative magic up there in Heaven.

“ Stephen...my cousin...my brother. Hands down...one of the best guys in the world. Where were your flaws? Certainly not in your art, your gardening, your culinary skills, your illustrations in the brilliant Picker McClicker books, your kindness to anyone, or you love for family and friends. You were too good for this world. I love you. RIP.

“ My nephew, my godson, my precious, precious Stephen how will we go on without you? You were the glue that held us all together. I thank God that at least He gave you to us for a few short years. I miss you my sweet Stephen, I am so sorry that you were hurting so much, but no more, you are forever smiling on us from the Heavens. Thank you for all that you added to my life. I love you beyond words. SuSu
