“ Sue was always kind and cheerful. When I was little, I always looked forward to going to her house because she was a great cook. I especially remember her brownies and homemade doughnuts!
The last time I saw her, she was visiting Mama in the nursing home. I am glad I happened to be there that day.

“ Heather and I had visited. her Grandma, Ms Sue in 1990. Somehow I left my college ID so my boyfriend drove us all the way back to Boaz from Tuscaloosa to pick it up. She was such the little hostess. She offered us diet coke and had made fresh sweet potato pie. She wouldn't let us leave until we had a snack. She cut us a huge slice with a dollop of whip cream on top. As I took a bite I realized something was just a little off. She was sitting straight across from us chatting about our college life. My boyfriend finished off his diet coke quickly and asked for another. She went to the kitchen and brought back two more drinks. With each bite my sweet boyfriend smiled and drank more diet coke. We finished up then had to head back in time for a basketball game. It was a precious time with Ms Sue and her kind hospitality! She never knew this is one reason why I married that boyfriend and we've been together for 27 years. She had made that pie with sweet n low not sugar. My boyfriend not only drove me six hours round trip but also was so gracious and thankful to Ms Sue who never knew he drank all four of the diet cokes just to get it down! Thank you again for confirmation for my husband and your hospitality!
