“ My dear sweet loving friend Susan. I had the honor of meeting Susan in 2002 when my family moved in across the street from her. She was such a dear friend and much more than a neighbor and I can't think of one single person that would ever have anything negative to say about her. God took an angel back home with him so he could enjoy her company! We all love you and will miss you greatly! At least I know that one day we will be neighbors again on those streets of gold!

“ Susan was like a sister to me. She was my daughter's Godmother and an awesome friend. I will never forget the night before I had my daughter Susan took me shopping and on the way back home so she "I don't like the name you picked out if it's a girl. Can't you just name her Abigail?" The next day when I had her I couldn't think of any other name but Abigail!! Susan was so happy to be a Godmother! We loved her so much and she will be missed but I'm so thankful she doesn't have to hurt anymore and that she gets to be in her mommas arms again!
