T. J. was my first attorney and first land lord when I opened a office for Security Mutual Finance Corp. in Albertville. He build out our office on a lot that adjoined his law office. I have always considered T. J. Carnes at the TOP OF HIS CLASS, a man of integrity, honest as the day is long, and a father figure. He and Flo serviced our legal and credit bureau needs with courtesy and prompt service. We never lost a legal action with T. J. as our attorney and always came out as a "winner" in any legal action he handled for us. I remember Ed "growing up" and at T. J.'s request bought Ed his first bass boat. For many years I associated with Jimmy in the Lake Guntersville Bassmasters. Ten years later my family and I moved to Georgia for a promotion but I always missed the Carnes family in Albertville. Rest in Peace Flo and T. J. - JOB WELL DONE!
