“ When I was 17 I worked for Thomas and Faye at the shoe shop in Albertville. I'm 60 now...but my last name is Anderson and everyone thought I was their long lost daughter but we were not kin. They were all very good to me and I will always remember them all with a smile. Rest In Peace Thomas.

Thomas was my brother in law but he was more like a brother. He married my sister Faye when I was 3 years old. He would always have juicy fruit gum when he came to pick Faye up for a date. I would go running when I heard the car... Gum! Chew gum?!!
I can't remember my life without him in it.
He was the only person who was allowed to still call me Patsy. I always admired the way he tolerated Faye's "adventures". He was happy just to come home and watch the ball game.
I miss him terribly but I will see him and the rest of the family before long. Praise God for the hope of eternal love and eternal life. Agape'

“ To the Family, I wish to send my sympathy to you all. Uncle Tommy was a man that made his own way and was a huge benefit to the community offering a service that was becoming a lost art. I remember my Dad working with him in the shoe business at which I think Uncle Tommy played a big part in influencing Daddy to start a store in our home town of which I worked with. The Anderson's would become a staple name in the shoe business in 3 cities for over 50 years. Uncle Tommy was a shrewd business man, good Father and had solid Christian values. He loved his family, community and country. He was truly Blessed as we were to have him. Sincerely, John L. Anderson, cousin to a super Uncle.
