“ When we were kids growing up we were together a lot...always had a lot of fun...always had Christmas together...went to church...had a lot of the same friends...he grew up joined the service and we kind of went our own way...kept in touch ,usually birthdays ...He's always been special to me...love him and will miss him...he died on our Daddy's birthday...makes it a really sad time for our family !! Prayers for all the family, now he is at home and no more pain and suffering!!
