“ I first met Brother Graham when my parents moved into the Hargrove Memorial Methodist Church (Tuscaloosa, AL) parsonage that he and his family had just moved from to enjoy their brand new parsonage - in 1956. I had the privilege of being an organist there at the ripe old age of 14. Because his daughter Connie would become my wife (much later, of course) our lives have been intertwined ever since. The person I came to know and appreciate as a father-in-law embodied the ideal of someone who's life was lived well.
He will be missed by all who knew him...

“ Mr. Graham, I enjoyed your company while I was working on the Myers Family Tree. Also when we went to get pictures copied for you and me. and at Red Hill School meeting. We had a good time, will always remember you. We still talk about you, yes and it is all GOOD. Thank you for your friendship and finding out were both in the Myers Family Tree. Thank You For your information. I know the LORD is at your side.

“ My name is Ann Marshall from Conyers, Ga. I am a neighbor to Wayne's sister, Mary Roberts. I met Wayne when he came to visit her after a knee replacement. I could feel the presence of God when Wayne spoke. He had a beautiful deep voice. One like you would think that God has. Mary (Dalene) has shared the books he has written with me. I use these many times for my morning devotion. In his book, "Words to live By", when he talks about the word Wisdom he says, "Knowledge is knowing what to say. Wisdom is knowing when to say it, knowledge is knowing what to do. Wisdom is knowing when to do it." Rest In Peace, dear friend. You will be sorely missed.
