“ Mrs. Little was my typing teacher at Albertville High School in the 1960's. I have thought of her so often through the years and regret that I didn't tell her so.

I remember how she stood over my right shoulder, giving me instruction while I typed. I learned, thanks to her, to be an excellent typist--a skill I have used throughout the years.

I, too, became a teacher and came to realize what an excellent teacher Mrs. Little was.

*My condolences,
